Tulane University’s Office of Environmental Health & Safety (OEHS)

NEW EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION

WELCOME!
Let’s get to work.

Key Takeaways from today’s presentation:

1. Training Requirements – Training Wave
2. Staff Support – Department Safety Representatives (DSR)
3. Emergency Contact Information
4. How to contact OEHS
Here’s what we do.

Environment
- Air Emissions
- Chemical Management
- Hazardous Waste
- Oil Storage (SPCC)
- Stormwater/Wastewater

Health
- Bloodborne Pathogens
- Indoor Air Quality/Respiratory Protection
- Drinking Water Quality/Food Safety
- Exposure Monitoring
- Pest Control

Safety
- Animal Care & Handling
- Facilities & Industrial Safety
- Construction Safety
- Fire Safety
- Lab Practice & Process Safety

---

Training

- Info sharing
- Compliance Assurance
- Well Being of TU community

---

Office of Environmental Health & Safety (OEHS)
“Where’s the training? I’m excited.”

- Training Wave >> Gibson

- Direct link: www.tulane.learnerhall.com

- Training Wave >> Course Catalog

- Reference: Job Safety Sheets
“It’s an emergency! Who do I call?”

Please do not dial: 911
“OEHS, I need help.”

Ways to reach us:

- How to email OEHS
  - Email our Helpdesk: oehs@tulane.edu
  - Helpdesk link on our website: http://tulane.edu/oehs/

- How to call OEHS

```
OEHS – Downtown Tidewater Bldg. • 504-988-5486
OEHS – Uptown Bruff Commons • 504-865-5307
OEHS – TNPRC Occ. Health Bldg. • 985-871-4811
```
Emergency or Hazard?

A for Effort, F for Safety
OEHS Pro Tips:

Ask your supervisor about Injury/Illness Reporting

Review your Emergency Action Plan (EAP)

Locate nearby Emergency Exits and Safety Stations
Final Requests:

OEHS Information Requests

Help OEHS help you

Stay up to date using the OEHS website: http://tulane.edu/oehs/
Questions?